

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF HTA

AXIS Healthcare Consulting Ltd was founded in Ireland in 2012 to provide high quality and tailored Pricing, Reimbursement and Access (PRA) services to clients. The Company's head office is located in Dublin and a second office is located in Galway city.

AXIS is now the largest Market Access and HEOR Consultancy in Ireland and the recognised leader within the international and national marketplace for its insights, expertise and success having delivered 75+ high quality and customised submissions to the Irish authorities.

The company is now seeking to expand its team of technical specialists and wishes to appoint an Associate Director of HTA to join the Irish Team. The main responsibilities of the role are to manage the day to day HTA operations within a fast-paced consultancy and to maintain oversight on various client projects. In addition, the successful candidate will be part of the Senior Leadership Team.

Job Type: Full time, Permanent position.

Location: Dublin or Galway office with the option to work from home also available.

Salary: the successful candidate will receive a highly competitive salary along with an annual company bonus, company pension scheme and a generous annual leave package. AXIS offers ongoing personal and professional development as well as other benefits including attendance at conferences and opportunities to publish research.

Role and Responsibilities

- as a key member of the AXIS Senior Leadership Team, you will input into and achieve annual Business Planning goals.
- to enhance the client experience at AXIS so that client expectations are exceeded with the delivery of high quality, on time project deliverables.
- be responsible for direct oversight on all HTA submissions prepared by the technical team.
- be responsible for the expanding team of HTA Managers and analysts.
- maintain an inventory of key HTA agencies' submission requirements and identify key trends in HTA methods, submission requirements and decisions.

Address: AXIS Consulting ,19-22, Lower Baggot Street, Dublin 2, D02 X658, Ireland

Office: +353 1 5292768

Email: INFO@axisconsulting.ie

Web: www.axisconsulting.ie

- identify HEOR evidence requirements and specific gaps in planned submissions and develop solutions to manage risks to successful client outcomes.
- critique, interrogate and validate a variety of cost effectiveness models including Markov cohort models and partitioned survival models.
- recalibrate complex cost effectiveness models.
- critically appraise submission dossiers developed by the internal team.

Essential

- PhD or MSc in Health Economics, Statistics, Epidemiology or a related discipline.
- Prior HTA Management experience (2/3+year min) in Consultancy, Pharma industry / related with advanced technical skills in a relevant area i.e. HEOR, cost-effectiveness analysis, evidence synthesis, health services/ clinical research, economic modelling, survival analysis and statistical analysis.
- Demonstrated ability in developing and submitting multiple HTA 's to agencies such as the NCPE, SMC or NICE.
- 1+ year people management / leadership experience.
- Experienced at successfully leading organisational change initiatives.
- Prior evidence of contributing to new revenue streams within organisations.
- In depth knowledge of HTA methodologies and processes.
- Proven track record in clinical and economic data analysis.
- Hands on experience of navigating through complex assessment processes.
- Ability to manage multiple projects in a fast-paced environment using formal project management methods.
- Exceptional communication skills.
- Demonstrable problem-solving abilities.
- Strong attention to detail.
- A high level of self-organisation, self-motivation and an excellent work ethic and personal integrity.
- Knowledge of the English language as mother-tongue, both verbal and written.

Desirable

- Thorough and current understanding of international healthcare systems.
- Publications in peer reviewed journals.

Please apply by sending a letter of application and a CV to brenda@axisconsulting.ie by August 7th 2020.

Address: AXIS Consulting ,19-22, Lower Baggot Street, Dublin 2, D02 X658, Ireland

Office: +353 1 5292768

Email: INFO@axisconsulting.ie

Web: www.axisconsulting.ie